EDUCATION DEPT.
INSTRUCTIONS TO TEACHERS

I

The use of this book should not begin till the fifty sight-words given below have been thoroughly learned.

During this "First Stage," three lines of work are to be separately practiced every day:

1. Sight Reading from sight-word cards and from blackboard.
2. Drill on Phonograms.
3. Ear Training.

1. Sight Reading.
Begin with blackboard, using script characters only. Teach the following sight-words:

A, all, am, an, and, any, are, at, can, come, do, does, down, eat, Frank, give, go, has, have, he, here, him, I, in, is, it, -Jack, let, like, may, me, no, not, oh, old, on, see, she, take, tell, the, to, us, water, we, what, where, will, yes, you.

Use the words in sentences from the beginning. Do not use the sentences found in the book; and, the better to avoid doing so, work up the words in a somewhat different order from that in which they are presented in the book. For fuller instructions, suggested drills, etc., see Manual of Instruction.

2. Drill on Phonograms.
This is a preparation for phonetic reading. To be effective, it must be thorough. The material used is the Initial Stock of phonograms, comprising f, l, m, n, r, s, — ā, ē, ō, — ing, ings, ight, ights, — ail, ails, ill, ills.

The drill on this stock must begin when the first blackboard work begins and continue without intermission. See Manual of Instruction.

3. Ear Training.
This, also, is a preparation for phonetic reading. It should begin at the very commencement of the term and be practiced daily. With brisk work, five minutes a day should suffice for it. See Manual of Instruction.

II

During the "Second Stage" of the work, three lines are to be separately practiced every day: —

541472
1. Sight Reading from cards, blackboard, and Primer.
2. Drill on the Phonograms.
3. Drill on the Blend.

1. Book Reading.
   The words in the preceding list having been thoroughly taught, and read in blackboard sentences, the book itself next comes into use.
   The pictures occurring among the words in the sentences are to be read as words; e.g., Jack is a rabbit, will be read by the child, “Jack is a rabbit.” Where colored pictures are used, teach the child to read the color of the picture as well. If, for example, the picture of a red wagon be used, as on page 17, the child will say, “See, May! A red wagon!”
   The drill on sight-words previously learned and the teaching of new sight-words from the following list must be continuous, the new words being taught at the rate of from eight to ten a week:

   Apple, big, boy, by, cow, dear, did, drink, fly, for, full, goes, good, hear, her, his, little, look, make, milk, much, my, of, one, or, out, our, over, pail, play, pretty, run, shall, sing, some, sugar, sweet, that, them, then, there, they, too, under, up, walk, want, well, with, your. For instructions for changing from script to print, etc., see Manual of Instruction.

2. Drill on the Phonograms.
   This will proceed as before, the cards being the means employed; but now the print side will be used as well as the script side. See Manual.

3. Drill on the Blend.
   This consists in the reading of single phonetic words. It combines practice on the individual phonograms, with the ear training prescribed for the “First Stage” of the work, separate oral exercises for the latter being no longer used. The material employed is found in Phonetic List No. 1 in the Manual; said list being arranged in sections according to the difficulty of the words presented.

III

During the “Third Stage,” four lines of work are to be separately practiced every day:

1. Reading from the Primer, Part II.
2. Drill on the Phonograms.
3. Drill on the Blend.
4. Continued Drill on Sight-words.

May, what have you there? Will you tell us?

Can you not see what I have? Oh, yes! and a .

and pretty make making
That is not all. Look into that pretty \(\text{\textbullet}\). There is sugar in it. I have water in the \(\text{\textcup}\).

See! The sugar is in the water. I take the \(\text{\textbullet}\).

See what I do with them.

Oh! I see what you are making. It is what you and I like. Will you give me a drink, May?

Yes, yes. Come and have a drink, Frank and Will! Will you have a drink? Come. Is not the \(\text{\textcup}\) pretty?

Yes, it is a pretty one.

The \(\text{\textbullet}\) is pretty, too.
Do you like to drink milk? I do, too. May and Frank drink milk. We all drink it. It does us good. The cow gives us milk to drink.

There is a pretty cow. The has come to milk her. Do you see the on her ? That cow is a good one. She gives good milk.
Here comes the 🐄. She has her can full. Is it a little can?

No, it is not little. See her take it up. Did she milk the good cow?

Yes, her can is full.

What will she do with the milk?

I will tell you.

Here are 🥛. Are they full?

No, they have no milk in them.

See what the 🐄 does. The 🥛 are full. Then let us have one.
See that go. See it! Do not run up to it. You may go under it. Let me take you with me. Hear the . Do you hear it?

Yes, yes. Tell me what is in that .

That has some milk in it. The are in there. Hear that . Can you hear or not? Can you hear what I tell you?
I can not hear it all.

Come to me. Then you will hear well. I will make you hear. There is some milk in that ∑ ∑ ∑.

Did some one take it there?

Yes. The ∑ ∑ ∑ are in the ∑ ∑ ∑. They have milk in them. They are full.

Where will the ∑ ∑ ∑ take them?

Will some one take them out? I want some milk to drink.

No one here will take them out.

Will that ∑ ∑ ∑ give us a drink?

Yes. Run and tell her what we want. She will give us some.
Here you see where the milk goes. Can you see some of it?

The milk comes out of the . Then it goes into the . Some of it will come to you.

Some goes to May and Frank. Some of it goes to little Will.
See Will take the cup of milk. Milk is good to drink. Is it not, Will?

Hear Will. Then you will want a full cup.

Is that Will's cup?

Yes, it is a pretty one. Have you a cup?

No, I have no cup at all.

Oh, here comes a little fly. Look out, Will. It may go in to the milk.

Make it fly. Do not let it drink.

Where is it? I hear it singing. Oh, there it goes, out to play.
WILL GOES TO SCHOOL.

Here go Frank and May. Are they going for a walk?

May takes her with her. Look at the big Frank takes.

Has he not a little one, too?

Yes, it is under the big one. He will not let go of it.

Can you tell where they go? You go there too.
Frank walks with May.

Will wants to go with them.

They will not let him go. He is not big, you see.

Hear what May tells him. No, no, Will. You may not come with us. You are not big. You may walk up and down. You may run or you may walk.

You may not go where we go. We are big. We have to go there.

Does Will hear her?

Yes, he hears. They walk on without him. Then Will goes in.
Am am boy boys

I want to go where Frank goes.
All of the big boys go there.

I am not little. I am a big boy. I can walk and run. Am I not a big boy? I have a book, too. I will take the book with me. It is pretty.

What did May tell me? Did she tell me not to go? Yes, she did.

I want to go. I am not too little.
I want to go, and I will go.
Oh, I am not a good boy!
It is Will. He wants to come here.

No, Will. You may not come here, dear. You will have to walk out.

Look at the boys that come here. They are not little like you, dear. You are too little. They are all big.

Shall I take him out?

Yes, Frank. Boys, look on the .

All good boys look on the . Look in the for "cow." Look for "milk," too. Look at "an" and "full" and "sugar."

Where is "an"? "An" is not down there. Come here. Give me the .
That's old over

Hear little Will!

Oh, dear! What did I go for?

I am not old like Frank. I am not big like May.

Frank is not little like me. He is old. May is old, too.

I can not go with them. I am not old. I am too little.

Did May tell me that?

She did tell me, over and over.

Oh, Frank! I am not a good boy.

No one likes me:

Here, Will. Play here like a good boy. Do not go over there.
Will you do what I tell you? I will like you then.

What can I play, Frank? There is no one to play with. Can I play with no one?

Yes, yes, you can play. You can walk up and down. Play or sing or run. Then May and I will come.

Well, then, Frank, I will play here. I will not go over there.

That's a good boy. Look! See what I will give you. Some sugar! Take it. You like sugar, do you not?

Oh, Frank! I want you. Do not go.

Frank did go. He is not here.
Oh, dear! No one to play! What shall I do? Shall I eat any sugar? Will some big boy come out to play? I can give him sugar to eat. Any boy likes to eat sugar.

Look at me, Will! I am a little dog. Will I do to play with? I am like you. I am not big or old.

I like sugar. Have you any sugar there? May I eat any of it?
Little 🐶, walk up! Walk up! Walk up to little Will.

Good. My my Pretty

My good 🐶, what do you want? Some of my sugar?

Well, well! See where my sugar is! The 🐶 has it. What will he do with it?

I want to see where it goes. Look! Up it goes! Down it comes! Where is it? Where is the sugar?

Good! Good! Pretty 🐶, you play well. You may eat all of my sugar.
Run our ours

Little ♡, can you play ♦, too? I have an old ♦ here. It will do for you and me.

There goes our ♦.

Run, run! Run, little ♡. You have the ♦. You run well! Come here with it. Give it to me!

That's it! Good ♡. I like you. I want you for our ♡. Do you want some milk? I will give you some of ours. You shall have a ♦ full.

We will have you for our ♡.
Frank, see that pretty 🍎. It looks sweet. Give it to me, Frank.

No, Will. That pretty 🍎 is not good for you. It is not sweet. It is too little to eat.

Well, then, no little 🍎 for me. I do not want it.

Oh, see! Here is a big 🍎. Is that good? Shall I eat it or not?

Yes. Eat it. It looks sweet.

Oh! It is good and sweet.
Frank has a big box. It is his.

Has he any water?

His is full of water.

Does he want much water?

He has to have all that water.

Frank, make a pretty plant. Make it for us. Here is one to look at.
Make it in your pretty.

What is in his? A , and a . Yes, and there is a , too.

There is no there.

What can he do then?

Can he make a?

Frank, take a little of your.

Not too much!

Let it go into the water.

Take a little of your . That goes into the water, too.

See what you have. Is it what you want? You can make your.
Look at the big \( \text{\textbullet} \). Is it all there? Much of it we can not see.

What did make it like that? A fly will not eat a \( \text{\textbullet} \). No boy eats a \( \text{\textbullet} \). What did eat that \( \text{\textbullet} \)?

Look! What is under the \( \text{\textbullet} \)?

Oh! A little \( \text{\textbullet} \) is under there.

The \( \text{\textbullet} \) eats the \( \text{\textbullet} \). He likes it.

It will make him big.

Does he like it much?

Oh, yes! He eats much of it.

Are May and Frank here?
I do not see them. I do not hear them. I have come to see them. Are they not here?
Tell me.
They are not here.
Where are they, then? Did they go for the mail?
I know where they are. Lee is with them. Ray is there, too. Sō is little Will.
Do you want to see them?
Look over here and you shall see.
Dear pail  pails  Old

Oh, there are May and Frank! Is any one with them?

Yes, May has little Nan with her. Do you see Nan with her pail? Some boys are there, too. Léé is there. Nat is, too.

Is that Will I see, or not?
That is little Will with Nat.

They all have pails. The pails are not full. What are the pails for? You shall see.

Do you see an old man? The one up there on the seat? That is old Sam.

He is, oh! so old. He is a dear old man. They all like old Sam.

Where do they want to go? You shall see. Old Sam will take them there. Is it not good of him?

Old Sam likes little Will. He likes to say, "Will is my boy." He will say it over and over.

Old Sam likes them all. He is good to them. Does he know where to go? Oh, yes!
Do I see Rover under there? What are you doing under there, Rover?

Dear me! Rover has a pail, too. What is Rover doing with a pail? Is it his?

It is not his. He has Nat's pail under there.

Did Nat tell him to take it?
Yes. It's a big pail, too.
Good old Rover! You do not like it much.

Here we are! We did not have to walk.

Old Sam, you are good to us.

Come on, boys. We can fill our pails.

Will you come too, old Sam?

No, boys, I shall sit here. Go and fill your pails.

Nat, where is that pail of yours?

Rover has my pail. Here, Rover! Dear old Rover!

Lēē, will you take me down? Oh, dear! There goes my pretty little pail! Did it go down under there? Is it under there or not?

I let it fall. I did not mean to.
You shall have your pail, Will. It is all right under there. You shall have it.
Here, I will take you down. See, your pail is under there. Take it up and fill it.
My pail is all right. Good!
Oh, May! I see you running over there. You will not have your pail full.
Where is Nan?
I'm coming too. I shall have some in my pail. I want some in my own pail.
Look at Lee over there! See that pail of his. Is it full?

apple apples

Is your pail full, Frank? Ours is not full. Shall we fill it? It takes many to fill it. Nan and I want some to eat.
Oh, fill it up, May and Nan. Go on and fill your pail. Then you may eat some.

See Lee with his pail. Look at Nat with his. See me on my knee. We mean to have our pails full.

We'll have them full. You shall see.

Then we'll all eat some.

May goes to fill the pail. Nan goes with her. See Will. Is his pail full?

Will, is your pail full?
Yes, yes, my pail is full. My pail is full and running over. I have too much in it. My pail is not big. Yours is a big one. You are right, Will. Yours is full. Do not eat any out of it. Our pails are not full. What shall I do—take a walk? Yes, do. Take a walk. Shall I look for some sweet apples? May or Nan, do you want an apple? Yes, yes, Will. Boys, do you want any apples? I want an apple. I want one. So do I. Old Sam wants an apple, too. All right. I will walk and look for apples. Out under there I may see some. Here, Rover! Do you see my pail? You sit here. Down, Rover! Down, Rover!
So! Do not come with me.

Rover does not want an apple.

Will goes on his walk.

Rover, are you there? Good old Rover! See him sit there!

See Rover look at us. What does he want to say?

Oh, little Will! Do not take a walk without me!

Oh, dear! There he goes! He will walk an hour! I shall have to sit here.

O, Will, what do I have to sit here for?
There goes Will on his walk. Can you see him? Can you hear him? What does he say?

Dear me! What do I see over there? Apples! Sweet apples! Here they are, right here. Are there many of them?

An apple for Nan! An apple for May! Apples for Frank and Lee. One for Nat, too! An apple for old Sam!

Oh, an apple for me, too! Did they fall down here? Let me see them. Are they not a pretty sight?

Are they sweet or sour? I do not like sour apples much. They look sweet.

They seem sweet to me. They do not look sour. Shall I eat an apple to see?

I might eat one of them. I might eat my apple. So I will. Here it goes.

No, no! I will not eat any.

I'll take them with me.

I know they are sweet. They are not sour. They look so good.

I'll take them to May and Frank. Then we'll all eat our apples.

Frank will eat his. Nan will eat hers, and May, hers.

I will eat my sweet apple, then.
Look over here! See what has come!
I do not like it much.
Oh! Oh! Let me fly! Let me go! Let me run, run, run!
Oh! I am running with all my might.
Is it coming for me? Is it running?
I can not hear it. Will it overtake me? Oh, dear! You are sō 'big!
Do not eat me up! I'm a good boy.
Do not make a meal of me. I am not fat, you see. I am not much to eat.

Eat my apples, not me!
Hear our little Will! See him run!
Do you see his heel fly up? Well, well! To see Will run like that! What a sight! He goes without his apples.

Will, what makes you run sō? Where are your sweet apples?

Walk, Will, do not run. Walk!
It will not eat you. Do you hear what I say? I mean it.
Will goes right on. He can not hear me. He does not want his apples.
Will does not know much, does he? He is not big nor old.

Is it coming for me or not? I’ll take a look. It is not coming over here. I am all right then.

Oh! I see what it wants. Some of our sweet apples out there.

Look at that! There goes an apple! There go all our pretty apples.

Shall I go and fight for them? All our pretty apples! I do not want to fight.

Oh, dear! I’m not a big boy. See! It’s eating an apple. That one is my apple.
Is it a cow?

I can not say. I have not seen any cow like it.

It is not like our cow. It does not walk like our cow.

Our cow is not fat like that.

It is not pretty like our cow. It has not the ear of a cow.

Our cow is big, too.

Is it a cow's little one? It's not much like an old cow.

What, then? Is it a lamb?

No lamb is like that. That is not much like snow.

I do not know what it is. I have not seen one anywhere.

It goes right on eating.
Here goes Will.
Does he like to go?
No, not much. He goes without any apples.

He did have some sweet apples. Where are his pretty apples? All eaten up?
Not an apple has little Will. Not one, sweet or sour. Oh, dear! Not any!
Hear that! Will, do you hear any singing? I know you like singing, Will.
Hear that! It is sweet. It is pretty.
Will hears it. He looks up. He sees what is singing. What does he say?
Oh, you're singing to me! I see you singing up there. Did you fly up there? I see you where you lit.
You are pretty. Your singing is sweet in my ear. It rings out.
See me down under here. Sing to me. Sing on! Sing out! It is so sweet.
There! See it fly! It can sail up, up, up. It can fly low. It is light, you see.
It can sing and fly, too. It looks pretty flying. There it goes, flying and singing.
Our pails are full. Let us have our meal.
Come, let’s eat and drink.
What have we? Is there any milk?
Oh, yes! much.
Is our little Will here?
Yes, here he is.
Will, did you take a walk?
Yes, May, I did take a walk.
Have you any apple for me?
No, Nan. I have not any. I did have some sweet apples. They are all eaten up.

What? Will! Did you eat them all?

No, no, Lēo! Not I. I have not eaten any of them.

What has, then? What has eaten your apples?

I do not know. Not a cow. Not a lamb. It is not much like them.

It is not big nor old. It is fat. Oh, it is so fat! I ran and let it have my apples.

Oh, we know what that is, Will! And you ran! Well, well!
Here, Will, have some milk to drink. I do not want an apple much.

We have much to eat here. Have we not, Lī?e?

Yes, we have too much. We do not want your apples. We have some here.

Sam, what can we give you? Will you have some meat? Will you have a drink?
Nat, give old Sam his drink of milk.

Give me a drink of water, Nat. Have you any good drinking water? I do not drink much milk. Let Will drink the milk. He likes it.

Oh, dear! Oh, dear! No one looks under here. No one looks at me under here. I want some of that meat.

Sam! See me under here. You have your meat. Will you let a little fall? Let some fall under here. Oh, do!

Old Sam sees you, Rover. He is looking at you under there.

He will give you your meat. Do not make a fuss. You shall have your meat down here.

Old Sam is good to all of us.
See that boy looking in. What does he want? Hear him.

Come out! Come out, Frank and May. Come and play with me.

Is that you, Leo? Come in. Come see what May is making.

Do you know what it is? It is not a fan. It is not a mat.
You know what it is. You have seen some like it. May can make a neat one.

What makes Frank look fat like that? I see what makes him look so.

Did May give you that, Frank? You can make yours go. Can you not?

Here, Lē∅. Do you want to make it go? I will let you take it.

See where Will sits. Did he fall down? No, he sat down there.

What has he over his knē∅? Can you make it out? What is the boy doing?

May has a good seat. It is hers. It is little, you see. See what she makes.

Make a pretty one, May. Do you hear? Will you make one for Lē∅? Lē∅ wants one of his own.
Yes, yes. Lēé shall have one. Then we'll all go out to play. We'll all run. Yes, we'll not walk. We'll run.

See them go! It is a pretty sight. Are they all here? I do not see Lēé. Where is he? Did not Lēé come, too? Oh, yes! Lēé is out there some where. Lēé has run on. He is out of sight. He can out run them all, you see.
Look at Frank there.

Frank runs with all his might. See his heël fly up. He can not overtake Lëë.

May is light. She runs well, too. See her. Her heël can fly, too.

She is up to Frank.

Is Will here, too?

Will is right here. He runs with all his might.

Can he over take them? See what he has on! Up there! Look! It is his.

Well, well! No one can out do Will.

It looks pretty up there, Will.

You do not want it to fall. Do you?

You will not let it fall.

Little Will, you can not run with them. They can out run you.
Will they go on without you?
Tell them what you want, Will.
May! Frank! Here I am. Do not go with out me!

Will wants to overtake us. See, he can not do it.

Let us not run on without little Will. Let him overtake us. Then we'll take him with us.

I know what to do.

Here, Will, we'll take you up. What do you say?

See, I am down on my knee. May has her knee down, too.

See us over here. We are down low for you. We will take you up with us.

Come, dear. Come and take your seat here. Then we can take you right up.
Do not let go of us. We will not let you fall.

Dear me! What a big boy you are!
He is not light, is he, May?
Do you like it, Will? Much?
See us! We are all in a row!
Here they all are! Do you know any of them? You know them all.
That is Nan by May and Frank. Rover is down here by Will. Where is Lee?
There he is, over there by Nat.
They are here to say good-by.
There is Jack! Well! Well! Dear Jack!
Have you come, too, to say good-by?
Good-by, Jack! Good-by, old Rover! Good-by, dear little Will! Good-by, all!
